FACTS COMMON TO ALL COUNTS

Tianhai's Copyrighted Lace Designs

13. Tianhai is a well-known textile manufacturer of high quality warp-knitted laces. Tianhai employs a workforce of over 1,300 employees worldwide, including 40 designers and drafters, who create and develop more than 1,000 new, unique, and distinct lace designs every year. Over the last thirty (30) years, Tianhai has grown into not only the #1 lace manufacturer in China, recognized for its superior, distinctive, and high-quality products, but also the largest global lace supplier for the world's most famous intimate apparel brands, including Victoria's Secret, Lane Bryant, M&S, Triumph, and many others. However, Tianhai's customers have also been known to purchase lace from Tianhai for use in connection with the design, manufacture, and creation of other women's apparel beyond intimate apparel as well.

14. Tianhai primarily operates as the U.S. sales arm of a group of three sister companies (including non-parties Tianhai Lace Co. Ltd. ("TLC") and Tianhai Lace (Guangdong) Ltd. ("TLG")) all of whom collaborate on the creation, manufacture, and marketability of lace fabric designs. Plaintiff, with the knowledge and consent of TLC and TLG, also operates as the U.S. enforcement arm of the operation in terms of procuring and protecting the group's intellectual property rights as well as policing infringement thereof.

15. Each lace fabric design that ultimately reaches the Tianhai showroom and sales organization in New York is assigned a unique pattern number used to identify the pattern internally and by customers. Tianhai's customers generally purchase lace from Tianhai to use in connection with the design, manufacture, and creation of women's apparel.

16. Tianhai's original lace designs, which are (and have been) sold throughout the United States and within this district, are the lifeblood of Tianhai's business. Indeed, it is the novelty, quality, and distinctiveness of its designs that sets Tianhai apart from its competitors.

17. In order to ensure exclusivity, its designs are protected under the copyright laws. Further, each lace fabric design that ultimately reaches the Tianhai showroom and sales organization in New York is assigned a unique pattern number used to identify the pattern internally and by customers.

18. Tianhai's sole means of obtaining revenue derives from the sale of its lace. Due to Tianhai's position in the trade and its investment in developing its lace designs, Tianhai's success depends on conscientious enforcement of its intellectual property rights, which are valuable assets and sources of significant value, customer loyalty, and business. Specifically, Tianhai's status as a source of desirable brand-name product makes them a target for counterfeiters who wrongfully seek to trade on Tianhai's name and brand and otherwise copy and distribute (often at a discount) the end result of Tianhai's labor-intensive lace research and design process. Such conduct damages Tianhai in the form of, inter alia, lost sales.

142. Tianhai's Pattern Y0729, Pattern XD525, Pattern XD081, Pattern YV450, Pattern A0342, Pattern XD810Q and Pattern XZ001 designs has never been dedicated to the public.

143. At all times pertinent to this Complaint, Plaintiff has been, and still is, the owner of all right, title, and interest in and to the Pattern Y0729, Pattern XD525, Pattern XD081, Pattern YV450, Pattern A0342, Pattern XD810Q and Pattern XZ001 designs, including the copyrights therein. Tianhai has never assigned, licensed, or otherwise transferred any of these rights, including its copyrights, to the Defendants; nor has Tianhai ever authorized the Defendants to copy, distribute, or license the Pattern Y0729, Pattern XD525, Pattern XD081, Pattern YV450, Pattern A0342, Pattern XD810Q and Pattern XZ001 designs.

144. Defendants have directly, vicariously, and/or contributorily infringed Tianhai's rights to the lace design protected by U.S. Copyright Reg Nos. VA 1-967-084, VA 1-967-086, VA 1-962-430, VA 1-791-176, and VA 2-010-599 by reproducing, displaying, or distributing unauthorized copies of the lace designs in violation of 17 U.S.C. § 501 et seq.

Second Claim for Relief
Unfair Competition under New York State Common Law

151. Plaintiff realleges by reference all allegations contained in the paragraphs above.

152. Tianhai has gone to great expense in developing, promoting the sale of, and commercially exploiting its copyrighted Pattern Y0729, Pattern XD525, Pattern XD081, Pattern YV450, Pattern A0342, Pattern XD810Q and Pattern XZ001 designs.

153. As a result of the expenditure of money and skill in the development and promotion of Tianhai's lace fabrics incorporating Tianhai's copyrighted designs, including the Pattern Y0729, Pattern XD525, Pattern XD081, Pattern YV450, Pattern A0342, Pattern XD810Q and Pattern XZ001 designs, Tianhai's lace fabrics have acquired substantial market value. Moreover, this value has allowed Tianhai to build up substantial goodwill in the distinctive appearance of its lace designs, including its copyrighted Pattern Y0729, Pattern XD525, Pattern XD081, Pattern YV450, Pattern A0342, Pattern XD810Q and Pattern XZ001 designs.

154. Consumers and the general public have come to associate products incorporating the Pattern Y0729, Pattern XD525, Pattern XD081, Pattern YV450, Pattern A0342, Pattern XD810Q and Pattern XZ001 designs as emanating exclusively from Tianhai.

155. The Infringing Products are likely to cause confusion to the general purchasing public as to the source of the lace designs incorporated therein. The lace incorporated in the Infringing Products was manufactured to lower quality standards than those of Tianhai. The use of lower quality lace has tarnished Tianhai's good name in the marketplace due to the perceived association between Defendants' lower quality goods being confused with Tianhai's goods.

156. Defendants, by acts willfully undertaken without authorization, license, or permission from Tianhai, have intentionally taken advantage of the knowledge and skill of Tianhai and of the goodwill developed by Tianhai, and has capitalized upon the market created by Tianhai for its distinctive lace designs.

157. The aforesaid acts of Defendants, in manufacturing, distributing, marketing, offering for sale and selling and/or causing to be manufactured, distributed, marketed, offered for sale and/or sold, the Infringing Products, constitutes inequitable conduct, unfair trade practices and unfair competition as defined by New York common law, and are likely to deceive and confuse Tianhai's customers and other apparel and retail distributors into believing that the Infringing Products are manufactured from lace fabric supplied by Tianhai or are sponsored by, licensed by, endorsed by or are otherwise associated with Tianhai.

158. Defendants' acts constitute misappropriation or attempted misappropriation of Tianhai's copyrighted designs and the goodwill and reputation which are associated therewith.

159. Defendants have misappropriated Tianhai's goodwill and the benefits of Tianhai's skill and expenditures in the development and design of Tianhai's Pattern Y0729, Pattern XD525, Pattern XD081, Pattern YV450, Pattern A0342, Pattern XD810Q and Pattern XZ001 designs and by reason thereof have caused irreparable injury to Tianhai.

160. Tianhai's market has been reduced by Defendants conduct, which injury will continue as long as Defendants are not enjoined by this Court from further manufacturing, distributing, marketing, offering for sale and selling and/or causing to be manufactured, distributed, marketed, offered for sale and/or sold, the Infringing Products in the United States.

161. Defendants have manufactured, distributed, marketed and/or sold the Infringing Products without authorization, license, or permission from Tianhai.

162. Defendants' acts have damaged Tianhai in an amount as yet unknown and may further damage Tianhai in such manner that Tianhai has no adequate remedy at law.
